OPPOSITION OF BLUE HILLS OFFICE PARK LLC, GERALD FINEBERG AND WILLIAM LANGELIER TO MOTION TO COMPEL
OF DEFENDANTS AND PLAINTIFFS-IN-COUNTERCLAIM

I. INTRODUCTION

Blue Hills Office Park LLC (“Blue Hills”), Gerald Fineberg (“Fineberg”) and William Langelier (“Langelier”) hereby oppose the Motion to Compel (“Motion”) filed by Defendants and Plaintiffs-in-Counterclaim CSFB 1999-C1 Royall Street, LLC (“CSFB”) and J.P. Morgan Bank (“J.P. Morgan”) (collectively “Defendants”). In that Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier have supplemented responses to document requests and interrogatories to the full extent required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and have produced all non-privileged responsive documents in their possession, custody or control, their compliance with their discovery obligations is complete. Despite the foregoing, and in an apparent attempt to obtain untoward strategic advantage, Defendants have filed an unnecessary motion which contains several misrepresentations regarding the conduct of discovery in this matter and does not reflect the substantial efforts Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier have exerted to comply with the discovery requests.¹

In further support of this Opposition, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier aver and assert as follows:

II. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

A. CASE BACKGROUND

The Loan

1. On or about August 31, 1999, Blue Hills and Credit Suisse First Boston Mortgage Capital LLC jointly executed a letter containing the terms and conditions under which Credit Suisse First Boston Mortgage Capital LLC² agreed to loan $33.1 million to Blue Hills (the “Loan”) secured by a mortgage on Blue Hills’ property located at 150 Royall Street, Canton, Massachusetts (the “Property”). The Loan closed on September 14, 1999 and additional Loan documents, including a Note, Mortgage Agreement and Cash Management Agreement, were dated as of September 14, 1999. By the above-captioned action, Blue Hills seeks, inter alia, damages for the Defendants’ and their disclosed agents’ multiple breaches of the Loan documents.

² Credit Suisse First Boston was the original Loan maker. Thereafter, Credit Suisse First Boston assigned all of its interests in and obligations under the Loan to defendants J.P. Morgan Chase Bank as Trustee for the Registered Holders of Credit Suisse Bank First Mortgage Securities Corp., Commercial Mortgage Pass-Through Certificates, Series 1991-C1 and then to CSFB 1999-C1 Royall Street LLC.

2. At the Loan's inception, the parties were aware that the Property's sole tenant, Boston Equiserve Limited Partnership ("Equiserve"), had a lease due to expire on July 31, 2004 (the "Lease"), and that the Lease was the only source of funds available to service the Loan. In recognition of Blue Hills' need to expend money to reposition the Property to attract new tenants in the event that Equiserve did not extend the Lease, Defendants required Blue Hills to deposit portions of its cash flow into reserve accounts earmarked for debt service maintenance, real estate tax and insurance reserves and tenant improvements.

Equiserve Does Not Renew Lease

3. In or about May 2003, Equiserve notified Blue Hills that it would not be exercising its option to renew the Lease. In 2003, Blue Hills advised Defendants of Equiserve's notification and engaged Cushman and Wakefield as Blue Hills' leasing agent to market the Property. During the period from the fall of 2003 through the foreclosure sale held in November 2004, Blue Hills contacted Defendants' agents, Wells Fargo National Association ("Wells Fargo") and Lennar Partners, Inc. ("Lennar"), on several occasions to advise them of its re-leasing efforts. Wells Fargo representatives assured Blue Hills' representatives that they would be responsive to Blue Hills' requests, and agreed to schedule a meeting with Blue Hills to address Property marketing costs and Blue Hills' access to the funds in the Reserve Accounts.

Blue Hills Requests Disbursements and Meetings

4. On August 2, 2004, Blue Hills made a written request for disbursements from the Reserve Accounts to pay principal and interest due on the Note for the month of August, 2004, and to pay the real estate taxes. On August 5, 2004, Blue Hills requested a meeting with Defendants. On August 13, 2004, Blue Hills sent Wells Fargo a fax enclosing its previous letters and requesting the involvement of the Special Servicer, Lennar.

5. On August 19, 2004, Lennar notified Blue Hills in writing that the Loan had been transferred to Lennar and stated that it looked forward to a "successful working relationship" with Blue Hills. That same day, Lennar sent Blue Hills another letter advising Blue Hills that it had the authority to meet with Blue Hills to review the status of the Note and “any issues arising under [the Loan Documents].” On September 2, 2004, Blue Hills wrote to Wells Fargo a second time requesting the disbursement of $254,652.24 to pay principal and interest due on the Note for the month of September, 2004. Wells Fargo failed to make the requested disbursements to Blue Hills.

Defendants Wrongfully Default Blue Hills

6. Despite previously advising Blue Hills that it looked forward to a “successful working relationship” with Blue Hills, and its obligations under the Mortgage Agreement, Lennar informed Blue Hills by letter dated September 17, 2004, that Blue Hills’ requests for disbursement of sums to pay principal and interest due on the Note for the months of August and September had been denied because Blue Hills was purportedly in default under the Mortgage Agreement and Note as of August 2, 2004 for failure to pay real estate taxes when due. Lennar also advised Blue Hills that the Note had been accelerated and was immediately due and payable.

7. After receiving the August 2, 2004 letter from Blue Hills, Defendants paid the real estate taxes that were due and did not advise Blue Hills that any failure to pay the taxes would result in a default. Moreover, when Lennar sent its September 17, 2004 letter notifying Blue Hills that it had been retroactively defaulted as of August 2, 2004, it knew that Blue Hills had previously made requests for a meeting in order to develop a plan to renovate and re-lease the Property, and it had previously received two written requests from Blue Hills to disburse money from the Reserve Accounts to pay principal, interest and real estate taxes. As a result of Blue Hills’ purported default, Defendants refused Blue Hills access to the Reserve Accounts, rendering Blue Hills’ unable to meet its debt service and tax obligations.

8. Among the most serious Loan breaches were the Defendants’ wrongful declaration that Blue Hills had defaulted on the Loan and its refusal to release to Blue Hills funds held in certain reserve accounts that would have enabled Blue Hills to meet Loan obligations. Defendant's wrongful actions, which culminated in a foreclosure sale of the Property, caused Blue Hills to suffer significant damages.

Defendants Assert Counterclaim

9. Defendants have asserted counterclaims against Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier alleging Loan-related breaches relating to Blue Hills' appeal of a zoning decision in 2003 in connection with the abutting property located at 250 Royall Street, Canton, Massachusetts, the settlement of that appeal ("Appeal") and the acceptance of settlement proceeds in exchange for the dismissal of the Appeal. Defendants assert that such violations triggered the personal liability of Fineberg and Langelier under a limited Guaranty executed in favor of Defendants dated September 14, 1999.

10. Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier deny that the filing of the Appeal and acceptance of settlement proceeds in any way breached Blue Hills' obligations under the Loan Documents. Further, Blue Hills' actions did not trigger any of the narrow carve-outs to the non-recourse provisions of the Loan Documents which would have given rise to any personal liability of Fineberg or Langelier.

B. CONDUCT OF DISCOVERY

Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier Have Made Diligent Effort to Comply with Discovery Requests.

11. On September 15, 2005, Defendants served their first requests for production of documents and first set of interrogatories on Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier. Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier responded on November 11, 2005, the date set by agreement of the parties. Defendants also responded to Blue Hills' discovery requests on that same date.

12. In their responses, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier objected to certain information sought based upon the existence of a confidentiality clause contained in a Settlement Agreement ("Settlement Agreement") entered into in August 2003 between Blue Hills and various third parties resolving the Appeal. The Settlement Agreement barred the dissemination of the terms of the settlement without consent or court order. Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier attempted in good faith to obtain the consent of the other parties to the Settlement Agreement so that the requested documents and information could be released. Unable to obtain such consent, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier had no choice but to assert objections based upon their confidentiality obligations under the Settlement Agreement.

13. On or about November 29, 2005, Blue Hills supplemented its initial production of documents by producing additional documents not subject to the confidentiality clause of the Settlement Agreement. The delay in producing these documents was due to Blue Hills careful review of all documents related to the Appeal so that it did not violate the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

14. On or about December 6, 2005, the parties entered into a Stipulation Regarding the Preservation of Confidential Materials (“Confidentiality Stipulation”) that was approved by all parties. Thereafter, subject to the terms of the Confidentiality Stipulation, on December 8, 2005, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier produced information they were previously prohibited from producing by the confidentiality clause or the Settlement Agreement. The documents produced were marked as “Confidential” and produced according to the terms of the Confidentiality Stipulation.

15. Although Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier had not formally amended the written responses to document requests, Defendants cannot deny the receipt of additional documents in November and December 2005. Copies of letters transmitting the supplemental documents to Defendants are attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit “A.”

16. On January 18, 2006, the parties participated in a mediation with the Honorable Rudolph Kass (Ret.). Subsequent to this unsuccessful attempt at settlement, the parties commenced additional written discovery and depositions, as set forth by the Court Order dated July 27, 2005 governing phased discovery.

17. By letter dated February 3, 2006, Defendants forwarded a letter demanding supplemental answers to their first set of interrogatories, as well as the production of certain additional documents. A copy of that letter is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit "B." Defendants claimed that Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier had not complied with their discovery obligations based upon Defendants' false assumption that there had been a failure to produce internal e-mails, memoranda, correspondence or communications. However, after a due and diligent search, it appears that such documents do not exist. As was communicated to counsel for the Defendants, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier had already produced all non-privileged e-mails and internal written communications. Regardless of having been informed of this, by letter dated February 3, 2006, Defendants insisted that Blue Hills, Finbeberg and Langelier produce a "certification" that no such documents exist. Needless to say, the purported legal basis for the putative "certification" requirement was not identified nor did the Defendants produce an iota of evidence that Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier were not being fully forthright and complete in their compliance with discovery obligations.

18. Counsel for the parties met on February 8, 2006 to discuss the open issues regarding discovery contained in Defendants' February 3, 2006 letter. As a courtesy, counsel for Blue Hills, Langelier and Fineberg agreed to ask their clients – again – to diligently search their computers and their files to ascertain if there were any additional documents that had not been produced. In addition, counsel for Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier also represented that all archived files from the 1999 re-financing would be reviewed a second time.

19. On or about February 16, 2006, when additional archived files from 1999 were located, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier promptly made such information available to Defendants. Although the vast majority of these documents were duplicative of documents that had already been produced, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier made such documents available for inspection. A copy of the February 16, 2006 letter confirming this inspection and the production of such additional documents is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit "C."

20. Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier's diligent search for additional documents, included, without limitation, searches of Bernkopf Goodman LLP's files, Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP's ("Wilmer Cutler") files, Fineberg Management Company's³ ("FMC") files and files of William Langelier located in California.

21. On February 16, 2006, Defendants' counsel filed the Notice of Firm Address Change for Defendants relative to their upcoming office move. Before producing additional documents to the Defendants, counsel for Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier left a voice mail message with Defendants' counsel inquiring as to the preferred location for document delivery - the old office or the new office. This message was never returned. On Friday, February 17, 2006, counsel for Blue Hills again called Defendants' counsel, who requested that any additional documents not be delivered until Tuesday, February 21, 2006, after the office move. The Motion, at page 8, deceptively states that Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier failed to provide documents on February 17, 2006. This completely ignores the dialogue regarding the preferred location and date of delivery discussed, supra. A copy of the February 17, 2006 letter confirming the agreement not to produce documents until February 21, 2006, as well as the February 21, 2006 transmittal letter are attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit "D."

Defendants Fail to Comply with Discovery Deadlines

22. Contrary to Defendants' plaint concerning the alleged failure of Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier to properly comply with their discovery obligations, the record extant demonstrates that Defendants supplemented their responses to Blue Hills' first set of document requests - served on November 15, 2005 - on six occasions: February 13, 2006, February 15, 2006, February 24, 2006, February 27, 2006, February 28, 2006 and March 3, 2006.

23. Defendants appear to adhere to the aphorism that the best defense is a good offense, as the Defendants have failed to comply with the same discovery "rules" they seek to wrongfully enforce against Blue Hills. As discussed, supra, Defendants have supplemented their production of documents on six occasions. An explanation for this "dribbling" of information has not been forthcoming. By letter dated February 27, 2006, counsel for Blue Hills requested that Defendants confirm whether additional documents would be produced to Blue Hills. A copy of this February 27, 2006 letter as well as Defendants' letters supplementing documents are attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit "E." No response to the February 27, 2006 letter was received. On March 2, 2006, however, counsel for Defendants represented that additional Wells Fargo documents would be delivered on March 3, 2006 and that more documents might be forthcoming in response to the first set of documents requests. In that three depositions of Wells Fargo witnesses are scheduled to take place in California March 8 and March 9, 2006, the Defendants' dallying is not only suspicious but is quite prejudicial to Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier's ability to prepare for these depositions.

III. ARGUMENT

A. After Having Diligently Searched for Responsive Documents, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier Produced All Non-Privileged, Relevant and Responsive Documents in their Possession, Custody and Control.

As part of a conscientious search for responsive documents, counsel for Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier have reviewed files maintained by the law firms of Bernkopf, Goodman LLP and Wilmer Cutler, counsel for William Langelier, as well as the files maintained by their respective clients at their business offices. The Property was managed by FMC, a small company that does not consistently maintain the categories of documents requested by Defendants in the Motion. Regardless, Joseph Donovan, CFO of FMC, and Daniel Frank, its President, testified that they reviewed FMC's relevant personnel files, as well as files maintained by Gilbert Stone, a director of accounting who reported to Mr. Donovan. Defendants deceptively refer to Mr. Stone's testimony as indicating that his files had not been reviewed. However, they have neglected to inform the Court of the testimony by Mr. Donovan and Mr. Frank indicating that files maintained by Stone had, in fact, been reviewed.

A pertinent portion of Mr. Donovan's deposition testimony addressing the review of Stone's files is set forth below:

257

9 Q. I'm sorry, did you say before that you have 10 been involved in collecting documents for production
11 in this case?
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. What did you do?
14 A. There was a request made by our attorneys
15 to pull all the documents; and so that's what I did,
16 I went through and pulled all my documents.
17 Q. What documents did you pull?
18 A. I had a couple of files on Blue Hills
19 Office. I pulled those documents, I pulled those 20 files and I gave it to my attorneys.
21 Q. Did you search the e-mails on your computer
22 for any e-mails having to do with Blue Hills?
23 A. Yes, I did.
24 Q. Did you produce those to your attorneys?

258

1 A. Anything that was available at the time, I
2 gave it to them.
3 Q. When I say search your e-mails, I mean
4 stored e-mails on your computer. Is that what you
5 understood me to mean?
6 A. Yes. I periodically purge everything on my 7 e-mail lists, so...
8 Q. Did you have any e-mails on your computer
9 pertaining to Blue Hills?
10 A. Not that I remember, no.
11 Q. Do you know what other efforts -- strike
12 that. Do you know what efforts were made by other
13 people at Fineberg Management or Blue Hills
Office
14 Park LLC to produce documents in this case?
15 A. I believe each person, to the best of their 16 ability, pulled out what they had.
17 Q. Who?
18 A. Dan Frank, Larry Needle. I went through 19 Gil's files and pulled out what I thought was 20 pertinent information in Gil's files. I know since
21 your -- his testimony to you the other day, I
22 brought his whole files into the attorneys' office.
23 I also asked him if he had any e-mails, and he told 24 me he had no e-mails having anything to do with Blue Hills . . .

Further, a portion of Mr. Frank's testimony addressing the review of relevant files is set forth below:

188

24 Q. Mr. Frank, do you know what efforts Blue
 1 Hills Office Park LLC took to identify and produce
 2 documents in this case?
 3 A. We did -- ...

20 A. We went through our files, our computer.
 21 We produced whatever documents we had.
 22 Q. Was someone in charge of that process?
 23 A. I think Joe was. Then we had counsel come
 24 in and make sure that we were in compliance.

189

1 Q. When you say Joe, you meant Joe Donovan?
 2 A. Yeah, sorry.
 3 Q. What counsel was involved?
 4 A. I think Lydia Chesnick came in. I know
 5 Lydia Chesnick came in to collect it.
 6 Q. Can you describe the computer system in 7 your office?
 8 A. I have a computer.
 9 Q. On your desk?
 10 A. No; behind me.
 11 Q. Does everybody have their own computer?
 12 A. Most people have a computer.
 13 Q. Do you know what search was done of the 14 computer system at Fineberg Management to respond to 15 our document request?
 16 A. It was a very thorough search engineered by 17 Joe. What do you do? You go through all of your 18 files and all of your -- I'm not that --
 19 Q. You don't know, do you?
 20 A. We went through --
 21 MR. McGLYNN: Objection.
 22 Go ahead.
 23 A. We went through whatever buttons you have 24 to push. We pushed out whatever we had.

 5 Q. Did Mr. Fineberg look at his computer?
 6 A. Yes. Somebody -- he looked at it, yes.
 7 Q. How do you know?
 8 A. Because I happen to know.
 9 Q. How do you know?
 10 A. Joe Donovan spoke to him and told him what 11 to do. We had our IT guy go in there. He doesn't 12 have hardly anything on his computer.
 13 Q. Did you hear Joe talk to Gerry?
 14 A. Yes.
 15 Q. What did Joe say?
 16 A. "We have got to go through your computer
 17 for anything relative to Blue Hills Office Park."
 18 Q. It was actually an IT guy who did that?
 19 A. Yeah. We didn't know how to get into it.
 20 Q. Who is the IT guy?
 21 A. Michael Attenborough.
 22 Q. He works for Fineberg Management?
 23 A. Yeah.
 24 Q. He's your IT guy?

194

1 A. Yeah.
 2 Q. Did anyone talk to Mr. Langelier to try to 3 get his documents?
 4 A. Somebody from Bernkopf Goodman &
 Baseman --
 5 Bernkopf Goodman actually talked to Andy Cohn.
 6 Q. How do you know?
 7 A. You know what? I don't know. I know he
 8 produced some documents. That I do know.
 9 Q. How do you know that?
 10 A. I don't remember.
 11 Q. Have you seen documents produced by
 12 Mr. Langelier?
 13 A. Lydia Chesnick would not let a stone go
 14 unturned. She's our attorney, one of our attorneys.
 15 Q. Did you see documents produced by
 16 Mr. Langelier?
 17 A. Yeah, I did today. . . .

Deposition Transcript of Daniel Frank, pages 188-194. Copies of the relevant testimony are attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit "G."

On March 3, 2006, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier provided formal supplemental responses to Defendants' document requests. These responses indicated that all non-privileged, relevant and responsive documents in their possession, custody and control have been provided to Defendants. A true and complete copy of Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier's Supplemental Responses is attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit "H."

B. Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier Have Timely and Fully Supplemented All Interrogatory Answers.

By the Court's Order dated July 27, 2005 governing phased discovery, the initial set of interrogatories were limited to 15 while the second set was limited to 30. Defendants' interrogatories contain so many subparts that the total number of interrogatories actually served are well in excess of number permitted by the Order. Copies of Defendants' first and second set of interrogatories are attached hereto as Exhibit "I."

Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier have supplemented their answers to Interrogatory Nos. 2, 7 and 11. The answers provided by Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier are the most thorough responses they can make based on reasonable and diligent efforts to refresh their memories by, inter alia, reviewing any pertinent documents.

Interrogatory Nos. 2 and 7 seeks information concerning verbal communications between or among , inter alia, representatives of Blue Hills and representatives of Wells Fargo and Lennar, the Town of Canton, Equiserve, and all internal communications. Defendants request detailed factual descriptions of communications and conversations between 1999 and 2004 between and among multiple persons and/or entities. Interrogatory No. 2 is undisputedly overly broad in scope, unduly burdensome, and contains multiple subparts. Timely objections on these grounds were interposed.

Interrogatory No. 2 states, in pertinent part, the following:

INTERROGATORY NO. 2

Describe each communication that took place during the period from July 1, 1999 through November 30, 2004, and concerned the lease between Blue Hills and Equiserve, Equiserve leaving the Property, Blue Hills' efforts to re-lease the Property, Blue Hills' requests for meetings with the mortgagee or Wells Fargo or LNR Partners, Blue Hills' requests for disbursements from Loan reserve or escrow accounts, payment of property taxes for the Property, and/or payments to the Tax Fund Sub-account (as that term is used in paragraph 29 of Blue Hills' First Amended Complaint), including without limitation communications between you and the mortgagee and/or Wells Fargo and/or LNR Partners, and communications among any principals, members, managers, employees, agents, or affiliates of Blue Hills, and, in your answer:

- a) state the nature, date, time and place of each communication;
- b) identify the person(s) who made each communication;
- c) identify the person(s) who received each communication; and
- d) identify each and every document which reflects, constitutes, or concerns each communication.

Much of the information apparently sought in Interrogatory No. 2 is information which is more readily and usually obtained through the use of oral depositions. See Cone Mills Corp. v. Joseph Bancroft & Sons Co., 33 F.R.D. 318 (D. Del. 1963) (interrogatories held too broad, burdensome and oppressive when they sought communications between defendant and over 80 patent licensees). Similarly, Defendants seek oral communications from multiple persons not specifically named that span a five year period. This information is more efficiently obtained through the use of depositions, which Defendants have noticed and conducted. Nonetheless, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier have supplemented their answers to Interrogatory Nos. 2 and 7 to the best of their abilities based on reasonable efforts to express and, if necessary, refresh their recollections. A copy of Blue Hills' supplemental answers to Interrogatory Nos. 2 and 7 are attached hereto as Exhibit "J."

With respect to Interrogatory No. 11, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier initially objected to the information sought because it was subject to the Confidentiality Stipulation. When the Confidentiality Stipulation was executed, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier disclosed the settlement agreement and the amount of the settlement proceeds. The issues to be determined by this Court for purposes of Defendants' counterclaim are whether or not Blue Hills' settlement of the Appeal and receipt of settlement proceeds in connection thereto was a violation of the loan documents executed by Blue Hills and the Defendants. While Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier contend that the "disposition" of the settlement proceeds and the specific bank accounts where the funds are held are irrelevant to the legal issues to be determined, they have provided this information to Defendants in their supplemental answer to Interrogatory No. 11. The supplemental answer to Interrogatory No. 11 has been intentionally deleted from Exhibit "J," as it has been designated "Confidential" in accordance with the Confidentiality Stipulation.⁴

IV. CONCLUSION

All supplemental answers to interrogatories and responses to document requests have been provided by Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier, notwithstanding that counsel is still waiting to hear if additional supplemental responses to Blue Hills' first set of document requests will be provided by Defendants. Based upon the foregoing, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier request that the Court deny Defendants' Motion to Compel.

⁴ Upon request, Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier will provide a copy to the Court for in camera inspection. Copies will also be brought to any hearing held on the Motion.

Re: Blue Hills Office Park LLC v. CSFB 1999-C1 Royall Street, LLC, et al.,
Civil Action No. 05-CD-10506 (WGY)

Dear Peter:

I have reviewed your clients' responses to our first set of interrogatories and requests for production, including the supplemental answers to interrogatories that were recently provided by your clients. The responses are inadequate, and for that reason we are currently preparing a motion to compel (1) the production of all responsive documents, and (2) complete answers to interrogatories.

The purpose of this letter is to hopefully narrow or resolve the issues that will otherwise be raised in our motion to compel. Below is a list of the interrogatories and requests for production for which inadequate responses or documents were provided. As the responses of Blue Hills Office Park, LLC ("Blue Hills"), William Langelier, and Gerald Fineberg were identical, the list below of inadequate responses applies to the responses of all three parties.

Defendants' First Set of Interrogatories – Nos. 2, 3, 7, 10, 11, and 12.

Answer No. 2 – First, neither the initial answer nor the supplemental answer (1) provides the nature, date, time, and place of each alleged communication; (2) identifies the person(s) who made and received each alleged communication; or (3) identifies each document which reflects, constitutes, or concerns each alleged communication.

Second, neither answer describes any internal communications among or between principals, members, managers, employees, agents, or affiliates of Blue Hills. Third, the supplemental answer to this interrogatory merely parrots the allegations of Blue Hills' Second Amended Complaint instead of properly responding to the interrogatory as written.

Answer No. 3 – The answer does not comply with Local Rule 26.5(C)(8), which requires that a party requested to "state the basis" of or for a particular claim, assertion, allegation, or contention: (a) identify each and every document...which forms any part of the source of the party's information regarding the alleged facts or legal conclusions referred to by the interrogatory; (b) identify each and every communication which forms any part of the source of the party's information regarding the alleged facts or legal conclusions referred to by the interrogatory; (c) state separately the acts or omissions to act on the part of any person (identifying the acts or omissions to act by stating their nature, time, and place and identifying the persons involved) which form any part of the party's information regarding the alleged facts or legal conclusions referred to in the interrogatory; and (d) state separately any other fact which forms the basis of the party's information regarding the alleged facts or conclusions referred to in the interrogatory.

Answer No. 7 – Neither the initial answer nor the supplemental answer (1) provides the date or time of the alleged communication or (2) identifies the persons who made or received the communication.

Answer No. 10 – Neither the initial answer nor the supplemental answer describes each communication that is responsive to the interrogatory, nor do they (1) provide the nature, date, time, and place of each alleged communication; (2) identify the person(s) who made and received each alleged communication; or (3) identify each document which reflects, constitutes, or concerns each alleged communication. Additionally, the answer does not describe any internal communications among or between principals, members, managers, employees, agents, or affiliates of Blue Hills.

Answer No. 11 – Neither the initial answer nor the supplemental answer describes the disposition of the Payment, nor do they (1) identify each and every document which forms any part of the source of the parties' information regarding the disposition of the Payment, (2) identify each and every person who received any portion of the Payment, or (3) identify each and every bank account into which any portion of the Payment was deposited.

Answer No. 12 – The answer does not comply with Local Rule 26.5(C)(8).

Defendants' First Request for Production – Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, and 28.

Request No. 2 – The documents produced in response to this request do not include documents concerning any internal communications relating to the Zoning Appeal, nor do they include notes or e-mails from or to the principals of Blue Hills. Further, it is not clear that all responsive and non-privileged documents in the possession, custody or control of your clients concerning the Zoning Appeal have been produced. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

Response No. 3 – The documents produced in response to this request do not include documents concerning any internal communications relating to the Settlement, nor do they include notes, e-mails, or other documents reflecting communications from or to the principals of Blue Hills concerning the Settlement. Further, it is not clear that all non-privileged and responsive documents in the possession, custody or control of your clients concerning the Settlement have been produced. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

Response No. 4 – The documents produced in response to this request do not include documents concerning the receipt, deposit, disposition, or transfer of the Payment, nor do they include documents concerning the negotiation of the amount of the Payment.

Response No. 5 – It is unclear whether all non-privileged and responsive documents in your clients' possession, custody, or control have been produced. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

Response No. 6 – The response to No. 6 states that only “material Loan Documents and material written communications between the Lender and/or its agents and Blue Hills” will be produced. Request No. 6, however, is not limited to documents you or your clients deem “material,” nor is it limited solely to “written communications between the Lender and/or its agents and Blue Hills.” If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

Response No. 7 – The response to No. 7 states that only the “business records of Blue Hills regarding payment of taxes in connection with the Property.” Request No. 7 is not limited in this manner; it requests all documents concerning the Property taxes and/or Property tax escrows. This would include, for example, documents evidencing communications concerning Property taxes and/or Property tax escrows.

Response No. 8 – It does not appear that all non-privileged and responsive documents in your clients' possession, custody, or control have been produced. For example, there are no documents reflecting internal communications amongst the principals and employees of Blue Hills, no documents reflecting communications to or from the principals of Blue Hills, and no notes taken by the principals and/or employees of Blue Hills. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

Peter B. McGlynn, Esq.
 February 3, 2006

Response No. 9 – No documents have been produced in response to Request No. 9.

Response No. 10 – The response to No. 10 states that only “relevant” documents will be produced. Request No. 10, however, is not limited to documents you or your clients deem “relevant.” If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

Response No. 11 – The response to No. 11 states that only “the material Loan Documents, Blue Hills’ business records with respect to the payment of taxes in connection with the Property, the Equiserve Lease, documents relating to Blue Hills’ efforts to re-lease the Property, and material written communications between Blue Hills and the Lender and/or its agents” will be produced. Request No. 11, however, is not limited to those documents. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

Response No. 12 – The response to No. 12 states that only “material written communications” will be produced. Request No. 12, however, is not limited to documents you or your clients deem “material,” nor is it limited to written communications. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

Response No. 13 – It does not appear that all non-privileged and responsive documents in your clients’ possession, custody, or control have been produced. For example, there are no documents reflecting internal communications amongst the principals and employees of Blue Hills, no documents reflecting communications to or from the principals of Blue Hills, and no notes taken by the principals and/or employees of Blue Hills. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

Response Nos. 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, & 23 – The responses to these requests state that only “material Loan Documents and material written communications between the Lender and/or its agents and Blue Hills” will be produced. The requests, however, are not limited to documents you or your clients deem “material,” nor is it limited to “written communications between the Lender and/or its agents and Blue Hills.” Each of the requests asks for all documents concerning or supporting certain of the contentions in Blue Hills’ complaint. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include these requests in our motion to compel.

Peter B. McGlynn, Esq.

Response No. 24 – The response to No. 24 states that only “certain statements of account received by Blue Hills...” will be produced. Request No. 24, however, is not limited in this manner. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, including, without limitation, all account statements and transaction receipts in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this requests in our motion to compel.

Response Nos. 25, 26, & 27 – The responses to No. 25, 26, and 27 state that only documents “which are not subject to the above-referenced confidentiality agreement” will be produced. The request is not limited in this manner. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have produced all non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, we will not include this requests in our motion to compel.

Response No. 28 – No documents have been produced in response to Request No. 28. If you will provide us with a written (and unqualified) confirmation that your clients have no non-privileged and responsive documents in their possession, custody, or control, and that there are no other lawsuits (past or present) involving the Property (other than the present matter and the Zoning Appeal), we will not include this request in our motion to compel.

I propose that on Wednesday, Friday, February 8, at 1:00 p.m., we hold a discovery conference pursuant to Local Rule 37.1(A), during which we can discuss each of the above interrogatories and requests in an attempt to narrow the areas of disagreement to the greatest possible extent. Please let me know if this time does not work for you. If I do not hear from you, I will call you on February 8 at 1:00 p.m. to begin the discovery conference.

As previously stated, with respect to many of the discovery requests listed above, a simple written confirmation from your clients that they have produced all responsive and non-privileged documents in their possession, custody, or control would eliminate the need to include those requests in our motion to compel.

Sincerely,

Dear Bruce:

This letter shall confirm our discussion earlier today regarding production of documents to your office. Yesterday, I left a message with Traci Feit inquiring as to the appropriate office to deliver documents in light of your impending move. When that message was not returned, I had documents delivered to your office at One International Place. It is my understanding that you have received them.

This morning, I left another message with you with the same inquiry regarding additional documents to be delivered. You advised me that because today is "moving day" for your firm, that we should deliver documents to your new address on Tuesday. Therefore, in accordance with your instructions, documents will be delivered to your new office address on Tuesday and will be sent to your attention.

Very truly yours,

Dear Bruce:

This confirms the depositions of Gerald Fineberg on March 21st and Kenneth Goldberg on March 23rd. This also confirms my consent to extend the discovery deadline to depose these individuals on those dates.

Recently, you have complained to me about the alleged tardiness of Blue Hills Office Park, LLC and Messrs. Fineberg and Langelier's responses to your production requests, yet in the past week and a half we have received five "supplemental" documents packages from you. The last one was received within the past hour or so. Do you expect any more "supplements"? If so, please advise me when we may expect them.

I also note that in this morning's "supplement" you have included completely redacted copies of attorneys' invoices. If you plan on continuing to pursue legal fees in connection with your clients' Counterclaims, please forward copies of legal invoices to me immediately.

255 1 Q. If they send you a letter, you don't send 2 them anything, you don't respond, what are they 3 supposed to think? 4 MR. MCGLYNN: Objection. 5 A. You'd have to ask them. 6 Q. Fortunately, I can. 7 MR. MCGLYNN: Is that a question? 8 Q. Were you involved in the collection of 9 documents for production in this case? 10 A. Yes, I was. 11 Q. Do you know of any other documents relevant 12 to this case that you or anybody else at Blue Hills 13 destroyed other than the incomplete financial 14 statements you say you were in the process of 15 preparing as of September 17, 2004? 16 MR. MCGLYNN: Objection as to form. 17 A. No, I'm not aware of any destroyed 18 documents. 19 Q. When's the first time you considered you 20 were going to get in a lawsuit with Lennar? 21 MR. MCGLYNN: If it involves reciting 22 the substance, in whole or in part, of any 23 discussions that you had with counsel, I will 24 caution you not to disclose those.	257 1 take back the September 17 default letter? 2 A. Not that I'm aware of. 3 Q. Do you know why not? 4 MR. MCGLYNN: Objection. 5 A. In my own personal case, I believed the 6 letter. 7 Q. You believed that was it? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. I'm sorry, did you say before that you have 10 been involved in collecting documents for production 11 in this case? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. What did you do? 14 A. There was a request made by our attorneys 15 to pull all the documents; and so that's what I did, 16 I went through and pulled all my documents. 17 Q. What documents did you pull? 18 A. I had a couple of files on Blue Hills 19 Office. I pulled those documents, I pulled those 20 files and I gave it to my attorneys. 21 Q. Did you search the e-mails on your computer 22 for any e-mails having to do with Blue Hills? 23 A. Yes, I did. 24 Q. Did you produce those to your attorneys?

1 A. Anything that was available at the time, I 2 gave it to them. 3 Q. When I say search your e-mails, I mean 4 stored e-mails on your computer. Is that what you 5 understood me to mean? 6 A. Yes. I periodically purge everything on my 7 e-mail lists, so... 8 Q. Did you have any e-mails on your computer 9 pertaining to Blue Hills? 10 A. Not that I remember, no. 11 Q. Do you know what other efforts -- strike 12 that. Do you know what efforts were made by other 13 people at Fineberg Management or Blue Hills Office 14 Park LLC to produce documents in this case? 15 A. I believe each person, to the best of their 16 ability, pulled out what they had. 17 Q. Who? 18 A. Dan Frank, Larry Needle. I went through 19 Gil's files and pulled out what I thought was 20 pertinent information in Gil's files. I know since 21 your -- his testimony to you the other day, I 22 brought his whole files into the attorneys' office. 23 I also asked him if he had any e-mails, and he told 24 me he had no e-mails having anything to do with Blue	258 1 I don't know, but I would suspect there was no 2 documents. 3 Q. Do you ever communicate with Mr. Fineberg? 4 A. Yes, I do. 5 Q. How? 6 A. By telephone, in person. 7 Q. Do you ever communicate with him by e-mail? 8 A. On occasion. 9 Q. Do you know if anybody checked his e-mails 10 in this case? 11 A. I didn't check his e-mails, so I don't 12 know. 13 Q. Do you know if anybody else did? 14 A. I don't know. 15 Q. How about Mr. Langelier; do you know if he 16 has any files that were reviewed introduced in this 17 case? 18 A. I don't know. 19 Q. Are there any central files or repository 20 of files about Blue Hills other than the individual 21 files that each individual kept on the project? 22 A. No. 23 Q. Did Carol Falvey keep files on Blue Hills? 24 A. She would have kept my files, which were
259 1 Hills Office Park. 2 Q. How do you know Dan Frank searched his 3 files? 4 A. I assume he did. You'd have to ask him. 5 Q. You don't really know, do you? 6 A. I was responsible for mine more than 7 anything else and I pulled mine. 8 Q. That's fine. I'm just trying to get what 9 you know. You don't really know whether Dan Frank 10 searched his files, do you? 11 A. I assume he did, but I don't know. 12 Q. Nor do you know whether Larry Needle 13 searched his? 14 A. Same answer. I assume he did, but I don't 15 know. 16 Q. Do you know whether those guys searched 17 their e-mails on their computers? 18 A. Again, I assume both of them did, but I 19 don't know. 20 Q. You should not assume anything. Do you 21 know if Mr. Fineberg had any Blue Hills documents 22 that he produced in this case? 23 A. Mr. Fineberg typically doesn't have any 24 files, so whether he produced any documents or not,	261 1 the ones that I turned over. 2 Q. 'Cause she is your administrative 3 assistant? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. You are listed in the answers to 6 interrogatories in this case as someone who provided 7 information contained therein. Are you aware of 8 that? 9 A. Contained therein. Could you explain that, 10 please. 11 Q. Sure. The answers to interrogatories say 12 that you provided some of the information that's in 13 them. 14 A. Oh, okay. 15 Q. Were you aware of that? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. What information did you provide that found 18 its way into the interrogatory answers; do you know? 19 A. I don't know. 20 Q. Would you like to take a gander at the 21 answers to defendants' first set of interrogatories 22 and tell me if you can identify any information that 23 came from you? 24 A. (Witness reviews document.) No. 1, No. 2.

1 units to condo and made a lot of money. 2 Q. When you went to work for Gerry Fineberg in 3 1971 -- 4 A. '72. 5 Q. When you went to work for Gerry Fineberg in 6 1972, he already owned properties? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. How many? 9 A. Oh, I don't know. A lot. 10 Q. He owned properties before that, and you 11 were renting units in his buildings? 12 A. Yes. I had no ownership whatsoever. 13 Q. You met him through your business dealings? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. But he became your friend? 16 A. Yes. 17 Q. Did you socialize? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. What is the vending business that you've 20 described? 21 A. Coin-operated amusement equipment. 22 Q. How did you happen to do that with Gerry 23 Fineberg to start? 24 A. He knew I was doing it and we wanted to	186 1 percentage. 2 Q. And that was something that Mr. Fineberg 3 agreed to as additional compensation to you? 4 A. Yeah. I wasn't on salary. I may have been 5 on salary at that time. I don't remember. 6 Q. Other than that small percentage that you 7 owned in that property, did Mr. Fineberg own the 8 rest? 9 A. Yeah. 10 Q. Then what happened? 11 A. Then we went in. We bought more commercial 12 and more retail. We went into the hotel business by 13 default. And here we are today. 14 Q. So you worked for Gerry Fineberg for 34 15 years? 16 A. Yeah. Isn't that a long time? 17 Q. He's been your friend and boss that entire 18 period? 19 A. Yeah. We've had one or two fights. He's 20 the greatest. A great person. 21 MR. FALBY: Let's take a short break and 22 see what else I have to ask you. 23 (A recess was taken.) 24 Q. Mr. Frank, do you know what efforts Blue
1 diversify. So we did it. 2 Q. How long did that last? 3 A. I would say two years. Then the condo 4 craze started. 5 Q. At the point you went to work for him, did 6 he have his company Fineberg Management already? 7 A. I believe so. 8 Q. Technically, you went to work for Fineberg 9 Management? 10 A. No. There was an independent arrangement 11 on the vending business. We called it Tudor Rent. 12 Q. When that ended, did you go to work for 13 Fineberg Management? 14 A. First on commission. It was easy renting 15 apartments. 16 Q. Over what period of years did you deal in 17 condos? 18 A. I'm going to say '78 through '81. 19 Q. Then what did you do? 20 A. Then we started to buy office buildings, 21 some retail and the likes of that. 22 Q. When you say we, did you obtain an 23 ownership interest in any of these? 24 A. In one building I did have a small	187 189 1 Hills Office Park LLC took to identify and produce 2 documents in this case? 3 A. We did -- 4 MR. McGLYNN: Objection. I think that 5 was asked and answered too. 6 You may answer. 7 MR. FALBY: Is that the basis for your 8 objection, asked and answered? 9 MR. McGLYNN: We covered this this 10 morning. 11 MR. FALBY: I asked about his file. You 12 designated him as a 30(b)(6) witness, right? 13 MR. McGLYNN: Partial designation for 14 that. You can ask it. I thought we covered this 15 this morning. You may inquire. 16 MR. FALBY: I want to know if there's 17 any objection other than asked and answered. 18 MR. McGLYNN: No. For a change, the 19 form is fine. 20 A. We went through our files, our computer. 21 We produced whatever documents we had. 22 Q. Was someone in charge of that process? 23 A. I think Joe was. Then we had counsel come 24 in and make sure that we were in compliance.

1 Q. Absolutely what? 2 A. Absolutely, I knew that. 3 Q. Did you go to college? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. Where? 6 A. Boston University. 7 Q. What year did you graduate? 8 A. 1959. Why, you know me? No, you couldn't. 9 Q. What degree did you obtain? 10 A. BS, social science major, English minor. I also went to Emerson too. 12 Q. When did you go to Emerson? 13 A. Kind of simultaneously. My dad passed away, so I got a scholarship. I finished up at BU. I started there and finished up. Why do you ask? 16 Q. Just getting some background. Sometimes I do it at the beginning. For you I saved it for the end when we would both be tired. 19 You started at BU, then went to Emerson and finished up at BU? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And then got your degree in 1959 when I was three years old? 24 A. That is sad. You see how you treat a	182 1 A. I answered an ad; became a rental broker for Hub Apartment Rentals. I never made so much money as I did doing that. 4 Q. How long did you act as an apartment rental agent? 6 A. The head of the company wanted to go into brokerage, and I was a good salesman, and so he gave me a piece of the action and we made a lot of money. Then things happened. Rent control, oil shortages, and it was not a good business. So we went into the vending business. 12 Q. How long were you in the apartment rental business? 14 A. Overall with this same person, five or six years. So we went from 1965 to about '71. At that time we had a falling out. And my wife told me to go get a job. So I knocked on Gerry Fineberg's door and he gave me a job. First we were in -- 19 Q. Hold on a second. What was the name of your first partner? 21 A. Channing McDonald. 22 Q. Were you in the vending business for some time with him before you had a falling out? 24 A. A period of time.
1 senior citizen. 2 Q. What did you do next? 3 A. I went to work for the Gilchrist Department Stores. 5 Q. What did you do for them? 6 A. I started out as assistant buyer for domestics, linens. I got promoted to assistant buyer of major appliances and buyer of radios. Radios were big. After a year, a year and a half, I got promoted to full buyer of notions, girdles and bras. In my last year, which was five or six years, I gave them my best year ever, earned my bonus, and was making $125 a week and said it was time for a change. I didn't know what the change was. I took a little bit of time, maybe a week. 16 Q. Let me interrupt. What year was that? 17 A. '59, '64, '65. Don't push. '64, '65. 18 Q. I have to ask this, which you will find shocking. Gilchrist was a department store? 20 A. The third largest department store in the United States. 22 Q. Which has gone the way of the wind? 23 A. Yes. 24 Q. What did you do after Gilchrist?	183 1 Q. Not too long? 2 A. Two years. 3 Q. So that took you through 1971? 4 A. Yes. 5 Q. That's when you knocked on Gerry Fineberg's door? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. Did you know Gerry Fineberg before you knocked on his door? 10 A. I sure did. 11 Q. How did you know him? 12 A. I rented apartments for him. I sold a building for him. Sold him a building. I met him through the brokerage world. 15 Q. Was he a client of yours when you were a broker? 17 A. He was a friend, a client, call him whatever you want. 19 Q. What job did you take with Mr. Fineberg? 20 A. We were in the vending business for a short period of time together. And then we entered -- 22 when I say we, the world of Greater Boston entered 23 the condo craze. He made me director of sales. We had three people. We converted maybe 1500, 1900

1 Q. When you say Joe, you meant Joe Donovan? 2 A. Yeah, sorry. 3 Q. What counsel was involved? 4 A. I think Lydia Chesnick came in. I know 5 Lydia Chesnick came in to collect it. 6 Q. Can you describe the computer system in your office? 7 A. I have a computer. 8 Q. On your desk? 9 A. No; behind me. 11 Q. Does everybody have their own computer? 12 A. Most people have a computer. 13 Q. Do you know what search was done of the computer system at Fineberg Management to respond to our document request? 16 A. It was a very thorough search engineered by 17 Joe. What do you do? You go through all of your 18 files and all of your -- I'm not that -- 19 Q. You don't know, do you? 20 A. We went through -- 21 MR. McGLYNN: Objection. 22 Go ahead. 23 A. We went through whatever buttons you have 24 to push. We pushed out whatever we had.	190 1 A. Larry Needle. 2 Q. Did you delegate to Larry Needle the responsibility to make sure that everybody looked at their computers? 5 A. No. Joe Donovan made sure everyone looked 6 at their computers. 7 Q. What did you do with Larry Needle? 8 A. Told him to look at his computer and told 9 him to get out any documents that he had on his 10 computers or in his files. Some of his stuff is 11 here too. 12 Q. And Joe Donovan told other people to look at their computers? 14 A. Yeah. 15 Q. How do you know that? 16 A. Because I heard him. Because we talked 17 about it. 18 Q. Who else looked at their computers for relevant documentation? 20 A. Anyone who had anything to do with Blue 21 Hills. 22 Q. Who did that include? 23 A. Okay. Larry Needle, Daniel Frank, Joe 24 Donovan, Gil Stone, Carol Falvey. That's basically
1 Q. Who actually did that? 2 A. Each one of us. 3 Q. What did you do with respect to your computer? 5 A. Punched out the -- you've got a lot of it 6 here. I looked at it. Punched out everything and 7 anything that I could find. I don't keep things for 8 long, long periods of time. 9 Q. Did you look for relevant emails on your computer? 11 A. Yeah. 12 Q. Did you find some? 13 A. You see all those emails from Plunkett. 14 Q. Those came from your computer? 15 A. Yeah. 16 Q. Were you involved with anyone else's efforts to get documents off of their computer? 18 A. No. Just the point to get it done. 19 Q. Did you tell them to do it? 20 A. Yeah. This is no kid game here. This is 21 for real. Get it done. 22 Q. Who did you direct to look on their computers for emails and other documents responsive to the document requests?	191 1 it. Paul Halloran is dead. He doesn't have a 2 computer. 3 Q. He's dead? 4 A. Yeah, he passed away. 5 Q. Did Mr. Fineberg look at his computer? 6 A. Yes. Somebody -- he looked at it, yes. 7 Q. How do you know? 8 A. Because I happen to know. 9 Q. How do you know? 10 A. Joe Donovan spoke to him and told him what 11 to do. We had our IT guy go in there. He doesn't 12 have hardly anything on his computer. 13 Q. Did you hear Joe talk to Gerry? 14 A. Yes. 15 Q. What did Joe say? 16 A. "We have got to go through your computer 17 for anything relative to Blue Hills Office Park." 18 Q. It was actually an IT guy who did that? 19 A. Yeah. We didn't know how to get into it. 20 Q. Who is the IT guy? 21 A. Michael Attenborough. 22 Q. He works for Fineberg Management? 23 A. Yeah. 24 Q. He's your IT guy?

1 A. Yeah. 2 Q. Did anyone talk to Mr. Langelier to try to 3 get his documents? 4 A. Somebody from Bernkopf Goodman & Baseman -- 5 Bernkopf Goodman actually talked to Andy Cohn. 6 Q. How do you know? 7 A. You know what? I don't know. I know he 8 produced some documents. That I do know. 9 Q. How do you know that? 10 A. I don't remember. 11 Q. Have you seen documents produced by 12 Mr. Langelier? 13 A. Lydia Chesnick would not let a stone go 14 unturned. She's our attorney, one of our attorneys. 15 Q. Did you see documents produced by 16 Mr. Langelier? 17 A. Yeah, I did today. 18 Q. What documents did you see that were 19 produced by Mr. Langelier? 20 A. I don't know. I think I did. 21 Q. Do you know for a fact that Mr. Langelier 22 produced any documents? 23 A. I don't know for a fact. 24 Q. Do you know for a fact that all of Larry	194 1 A. Yes. 2 Q. Did somebody go through? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Let me ask the question. Did somebody go 5 through the central files maintained by Fineberg 6 Management on Blue Hills Office Park to find 7 documents responsive to our request? 8 A. Yes. 9 Q. Who? 10 A. Lydia Chesnick and Carol Falvey. Joe 11 Donovan supervised it. I'll let it go that way. 12 Q. Do you know for a fact that anyone reviewed 13 the central files containing Blue Hills documents in 14 connection with a document production? 15 A. We were told -- 16 MR. McGLYNN: That was the same question 17 you just asked. 18 MR. FALBY: I'm asking whether he knows 19 it or whether he's assuming it. Sometimes he 20 assumes stuff and sometimes he knows it. I am 21 trying to find out which. 22 Q. Do you know for a fact that somebody went 23 through the central files? 24 A. I do know for a fact.
1 Needle, Joe Donovan, Gil Stone and Carol Falvey 2 searched their files for documents in response to 3 our requests? 4 A. That I do know. 5 Q. You do know? 6 A. Yes. 7 Q. And to your knowledge, they produced -- 8 A. Whatever they had. 9 Q. Let me finish it. To your knowledge, they 10 gave to your attorneys whatever responsive documents 11 that they have? 12 A. Yes. 13 Q. I take it that neither Larry Needle, Joe 14 Donovan, Gil Stone, Carol Falvey or yourself have 15 any documents that relate to the disposition of the 16 settlement payment, correct? 17 A. I didn't have it. I can't speak for them. 18 I doubt it for -- I know Larry didn't. I don't know 19 whether Joe did or didn't. 20 Q. Does Fineberg Management or Fine Hotels 21 have separately files of any sort? 22 A. Yes. 23 Q. Is there a central file or files kept on 24 Blue Hills?	195 1 Q. How do you know? 2 A. Because Lydia Chesnick was there with her 3 checklist. 4 Q. And you saw her go through the central 5 files? 6 A. No, I did not. 7 Q. How do you know she did? 8 A. Because she's an experienced lawyer and 9 knows what you wanted. 10 Q. Do you have any other basis for saying that 11 someone went through the central files? 12 A. Yeah. 13 Q. Wait a minute. Do you have any other basis 14 for saying someone went through the central files 15 other than the fact that Lydia was there in your 16 office with a checklist? 17 A. And Joe Donovan was responsible for 18 collecting all the stuff and he's very thorough. 19 Q. FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

Blue Hills Office Park LLC (“Blue Hills”), William Langelier (“Langelier”) and Gerald Fineberg (“Fineberg”) hereby supplement their responses to the Defendants’ First Request for Production of Documents as follows:

I. STATEMENT AND GENERAL OBJECTIONS

Blue Hill, Fineberg and Langelier object to Defendants’ Request for Production of Documents to the extent its “definitions” exceed the scope of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26 and 34. In addition, Defendants’ Requests are extremely broad in scope, include information subject to the attorney/client privilege and/or work-product doctrine, and are overly burdensome. Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier hereby incorporate by reference each and every one of the general objections and statements into all of the following document responses.

Blue Hills, Fineberg and Langelier further contend that all documents responsive to the defendants' production requests have been furnished with the exception of documents withheld on the basis of the attorney-client and/or attorney work product privileges. Blue Hills also asserts that it has attempted, without success, to reach a mutual agreement with the defendants concerning the preparation and exchange of privilege logs as of this date.

Blue Hills Office Park LLC ("Blue Hills") hereby supplements its answers to Interrogatories 2, 7 and 11 of the First Set of Interrogatories propounded by the Defendants.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

Blue Hills objects to each of Defendants' interrogatories to the extent that each interrogatory recites or incorporates a "definition" and/or an "instruction" which exceeds the scope of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Blue Hills also objects to each interrogatory to the extent that each interrogatory is vague, overly broad, unduly burdensome, seeks information that is irrelevant and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, seeks information that is not in Blue Hills's possession, custody or control, seeks information that is already in Defendants' possession, custody or control, seeks information that is subject to the attorney-client privilege and/or the attorney work-product doctrine, and seeks information that is otherwise beyond the scope of permissible discovery.

Blue Hills hereby incorporates by reference each and every one of its general objections into each and every Answer as if fully set forth therein.

Mr. Needle is unable to recall the dates of these meetings.

INTERROGATORY NO. 7

State the basis for the allegation, in paragraph 38 of Blue Hills' First Amended Complaint, that "[t]his information [that Equiserve notified Blue Hills that it would not be exercising its option to renew the Equiserve lease] was communicated to either or both of the defendants, through their agents, Wells Fargo."

ANSWER NO. 7

Equiserve notified Blue Hills of its intent not to exercise its option to extend its lease in or about May 2003. Equiserve and Blue Hills then entered into a Lease Termination Agreement dated as of August 5, 2003. Shortly thereafter, Joseph Donovan called Wells Fargo on the telephone regarding, inter alia, Equiserve's notification to Blue Hills that it would not be renewing its lease which would expire July 31, 2004. The date of this communication cannot be recalled by Mr. Donovan, although he recalls speaking with Wells Fargo representatives in 2003 regarding the replacement of Equiserve as a tenant at the Property. In addition and without limitation to the foregoing, and Blue Hills' answers to Defendants' Second Set of Interrogatories, Blue Hills states that documents adduced on discovery thus far have confirmed that the Defendants knew as early as the summer and fall of 2003 that Equiserve would not be renewing its lease and also confirmed that they received information to that effect from Blue Hills representatives.
